PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Worldwide Film Entertainment has announced the acquisition of the motion picture “I Am” for international licensing to premiere at the American Film Market. Written and directed by John Ward who also co-produced with Christopher Marcus and Todd Zeile, the drama entwines the lives of ten troubled people in Los Angeles who are guided by a mysterious stranger played by Tomas Boykin. Also starring are Christinna Chauncey and Jay Hindle.

20th Century Fox holds domestic rights and releases this month. “I Am” reunites the producing team of the successful “Liquid” DVD feature series of family value stories in worldwide release. WFE, now in its twelfth year as an independent sales agent, is headed by Barbara Mudge.
