

WAR OF THE DEAD* Gains Momentum at AFM

LOS ANGELES (November 4, 2011) – Clay Epstein, VP of Sales and Acquisitions for The Little Film Company announces the UK sale of the new action film, WAR OF THE DEAD to Momentum Films/Alliance Pictures.

"We've had an incredible response to WAR OF THE DEAD and are thrilled to have found the perfect distribution team for such a great film with Momentum/Alliance," Epstein said.

WAR OF THE DEAD is directed by Marko Makilaakso and stars Andrew Tiernan as Captain Martin Stone who leads a specially trained, elite platoon of American and Finnish soldiers who attack an enemy bunker. Underestimating their enemy's strength, they are quickly beaten back into the forest. As the platoon tries to regroup, they are suddenly attacked by the same soldiers whom they'd just killed minutes earlier. Forced to flee deeper into Russian territory, they discover one of war's most terrifying secrets and realize they have woken up a far more deadly enemy.

"We're excited to be in business with the Little Film Company on what promises to be a real treat for fans of full-blooded action." Said Henry Beattie, Worldwide Acquisitions Manager for Momentum Pictures/Alliance Films.

With the current fad of Zombie films taking center stage on the global film market, WAR OF THE DEAD stands out with its high production value and non-stop action.

The Little Film Company is selling the European coproduction at AFM along with an impressive slate including Dario Argento's DRACULA 3D, THE EYE OF THE STORM with Geoffrey Rush and Charlotte Rampling, BENEATH THE DARKNESS with Dennis Quaid and SPUD with John Cleese.

Click here to view the comprehensive list of films represented by The Little Film Company.

WAR OF THE DEAD is a European coproduction with a running time of 90 minutes.

About The Little Film Company

The Little Film Company is a worldwide motion picture sales and marketing company based in Los Angeles that also finances, executive produces, and distributes independent feature films and documentaries. Recent successes include the critically acclaimed documentary IT MIGHT GET LOUD, directed by Davis Guggenheim; the adaptation of Michael Hoffman's THE LAST STATION, which earned Academy Award nominations for its stars Helen Mirren and Christopher Plummer; and the Academy Award-winning film TSOTSI, written and directed by Gavin Hood. Projects currently in post-production include Fred Schepisi's THE EYE OF THE STORM starring current Academy-Award nominee Geoffrey Rush, Judy Davis and Charlotte Rampling; and the thriller BENEATH THE DARKNESS starring Dennis Quaid.

For more information please visit www.thelittlefilmcompany.com

About Alliance Films

Alliance Films Inc. is one of the top five independent filmed entertainment companies in the world. A leading multinational distributor, co-financier and producer of filmed entertainment, its member companies, Alliance Films and Alliance Vivafilm (Canada); Momentum Pictures (UK) and Aurum Producciones (Spain), offer integrated delivery of content in all media. Strategic partnerships include exclusive distribution rights to films from Relativity Media in Canada and the UK; Focus Features, The Weinstein Company, Miramax and CBS Films in Canada; as well as ongoing relationships with Summit, FilmNation Entertainment, Exclusive Media, IM Global, Lionsgate International, Wild Bunch, Constantin Films, EuropaCorp and Nu Image in all three territories.

For more information please visit: <http://www.momentumpictures.co.uk/>

The Little Film Company is located at Loews, room 614 during AFM.

###

Media contact:
Lon Haber PR
Lon Haber | 323-620-1675 | lon@lonhaber.com