

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What films are accepted? All films, in any language, including narrative and documentary, works-in-progress, trailers, product reels, shorts, are acceptable.

When are films viewable? Films will be available to screen online from October 29, 2024, one week before AFM, through March 31, 2025.

Who can see our films? For each film, you may choose any or all of these groups:

- AFM Territorial Buyers
- AFM Press
- All other AFM Participants - includes sales companies, producers, film commissions, etc.
- Territorial Buyers not Attending AFM 2024 – our full list of worldwide Buyers

Can we add or remove anyone from these lists? No. If you choose a list, everyone on the list may view the film.

Will our film get a listing in the AFM Screenings Guide? Yes.

Will our film be listed on The Film Catalogue website? Yes.

Is there a charge to view films? No, there is no charge to the viewer.

How will AFM participants know about AFM Screenings On-Demand? On or before October 29, all groups listed above will receive an AFM Screenings On-Demand invitation to view films. Follow-up emails will continue through March 2025.

Will we know who viewed our film? Yes. Detailed reporting will include who viewed your film and when it was viewed.